

Ref. No.: DP cop/A.Y - PY program-outcome/ 2023-24/58

Date : 01/04/2024

Program Outcome

Third Year BPTb

At the end of third year students should be able to perform following

FDPS

Students will acquire knowledge about the principles of International Classification of Functioning (I.C.F.) and its applicability in context to movement dysfunctions.

Students will learn the physiotherapeutic evaluation skills including electrodiagnosis on patients to arrive at a Functional/ Physical Diagnosis in Neuromuscular, Cardiovascular & Respiratory dysfunction and various specialized manual therapy and neurodevelopmental techniques and practice these skills on models.

Surgery I

Students will be describe the effects of surgical trauma & Anaesthesia in general and clinically evaluate & describe the surgical management in brief of General Surgery, Neuro Surgery, Cardiovascular and Thoracic Surgery, ENT & Ophthalmic Surgery, Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery

Surgery II

Students will be able to discuss the, aetiology, Pathophysiology, clinical manifestations & conservative/surgical management of various traumatic & cold cases of the Musculoskeletal Conditions.

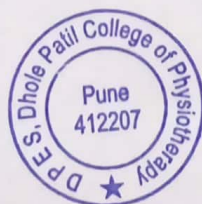

Medicine I

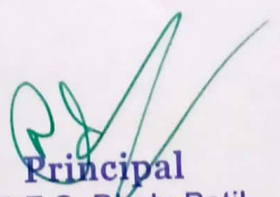

Students should be able to describe Etiology, Pathophysiology, Signs & Symptoms & Management of the various Endocrinal, Metabolic, Geriatric & Nutrition Deficiency conditions, Rheumatologic Cardiovascular & Respiratory Conditions, Musculoskeletal, Respiratory, Cardio-vascular & Neurological System as a part of clinical teaching.

Medicine II

Students should be able to describe Aetiology, Pathophysiology, signs & Symptoms & Management of the various Neurological & Paediatric conditions and Acquire skill of history taking and clinical examination of Neurological & Paediatric conditions as a part of clinical teaching

Community health & sociology

Principal
D P E S, Dhole Patil
College of Physiotherapy
Pune - 412207

Students should be able to learn the wider responsibilities at all levels of health services and improving their performance through better understanding of the health services at all the levels of community

Students should be able covers the basic knowledge and concepts of sociology to with the aim to help them understand the impact of group, culture and environment on the behavior and health of the patients.

Gynaecology & obstetrics

Students should be able learn normal & abnormal physiological events, complications and management during Puberty and normal and abnormal physiological events, complications and management of pregnancy (Pregnancy, Labour, Puerperium), and Normal and abnormal physiological events, complications and management of urogenital dysfunction (Antenatal, Postnatal, during menopause)

Dermatology

Student will be able to describe the Pathophysiology, Signs & Symptoms, Clinical Features, Examination & Management of Common Skin Conditions like Leprosy, Psoriasis, Bacterial & Fungal Infections of the skin, connective tissue disorder, hand eczema, drug reaction, cutaneous manifestation of HIV, & Sexually Transmitted Diseases

Principal
D P E S, Dhole Patil
College of Physiotherapy
Pune - 412207