

Before the commencement of the academic session the Principal of Dhole Patil College of Physiotherapy conducted a meeting of the faculty members, hostel warden and the representatives of the students to discuss on how to prevent ragging in the college and hostel premises. This meeting is conducted yearly and the hostel meeting in regard with anti-ragging is held quarterly to discuss and inform the students that the bullied person has the rights to complain directly to the anti-ragging committee and quick actions will be taken against them.
