

Precautions implemented by Anti-ragging squad

There has been a noticeable increase in security measures and policies implemented by the institute to combat the issue of ragging in campus. The anti-ragging squad has been more active and vigilant in monitoring and investigating any incidents reported by students. The institute has also taken steps to increase security in the premises by installing more CCTV cameras in common areas and keeping a close watch on places that are vulnerable to ragging. Additionally, there has been an increase in the number of security personnel patrolling the campus to deter any potential perpetrators. Furthermore, the institute has enforced stricter rules and regulations regarding ragging, with harsher penalties for those found guilty of such behavior. Students are being encouraged to report any incidents of ragging immediately to the authorities so that swift action can be taken. However, the identity of the victim will remain confidential.
