

Anti-ragging Counselling

Dhole Patil College of Physiotherapy hired professional counselors Dr. Vrishali Pandey and Dr. Aarti Dandavate for the fresher and the seniors respectively to support and guide for anti-ragging. The counselors have been a great addition to the team and instrumental in providing valuable insights and strategies to combat the issue of ragging in campus. They hold regular meetings with the members of the committee to discuss the ongoing cases of ragging and to devise suitable interventions to address them. Both has also conducted several workshops and training sessions for students and faculty members to raise awareness about the detrimental effects of ragging and the importance of creating a safe and respectful environment in campus. Their expertise and dedication have been invaluable in fostering a culture of respect and mutual understanding amongst students, and their presence has been greatly appreciated by both the committee members and the student body.
